SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget it.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Liver Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OSBORN & SHOEMAKER. au7 eod

A JUDICIAL GLASS HOUSE.

Judge Wright's chance for foisting himself upon the people once more as Judge of this district must be growing exceedingly thin. At least we judge so from the desperate methods which himself and his score of friends have adopted. The plan is something like this:

In Washoe they try to give an impression that both press and people in Ormsby are grieved and insulted because Washoe is against Wright. In Ormsby it is said that the people in Washoe are a unit in favor of Wright and want some extra and special convention in order to simplify the manner of his nomination. The truth is told, however, when we say that at neither end of the circuit has he the confidence of the people.

We presume that Judge Wright is beginning to see that Attorney Clarke can't elect him, and now another dodge is invented. The candidate and his two friends in Ormsby are now devoting their time to every man who can possibly become an opponent. They know just how many times he has been a thief, and how many times he wanted to be. They can tell when he was a Democrat and when a Republican. In this connection we will say that the time is approaching when we shall review Mr. Wright's record. His record in the Harris fight, and his desire for Democratic legislative honors, besides other matters, will prove very trying to the glass shanty in which our friend is now living.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A young friend in Paris sends us a long letter detailing the glories and pleasures of gay Paris with all the enthusiasm of youth. We quote: "I have given Paris three weeks, and they have been the best of my life. 'There is but one Paris' it has been well said. — talks about 'God's country;' he had better come here. Talk about woman, vanity, conceit, hippodromes, circuses, operas, and all things from the most vile to the most elevated. We Americans know nothing of these things. Such boulevards, parks, gardens and magnificence. No wonder Paris is Paris, and that Paris means art, and everything which is splendid and glorious." Our friend does not say what he is doing, but we will bet $3 50 that he is taking it all in.

There is such a thing as going to extremes even in the cause of justice. Judge Cole, of Eureka, seems to have made up his mind that Jesse Bigelow shall go to the penitentiary for the killing of Gus Botts. The grand jury refused to indict Bigelow, and Judge C held him without bail. The next jury indicted, and the trial jury failed to agree. Bigelow is again held without bail for another trial. Judge Cole's action seems, to outsiders, the least bit severe. Judge Cole is very much like Judge Wright, of our county, only opposite in character.

The Eureka Leader coincides with the GAZETTE in its views upon committee rights. That paper says of Daggett's article: "It was correct in principle. It is a high-handed proceeding on the part of any committee to arrogate to themselves the right to give expression to the preferences of the party without consulting the rank and file, and will end in their confusion and defeat. Give the voters a chance and the devil take the hindmost."

And now the news comes again from South Carolina that the Republicans have decided not to nominate candidates for State offices, because, owing to rifle club rule and Democratic supremacy, they consider it dangerous to organize for the campaign or vote at the election. We do not believe that there is any necessity for the Republicans to disband in that State, nor that they have done so.

Our exchanges were all surprised that Reno was not burned to the ground on Wednesday last, and the streets running blood. They had heard of Wellman's dripping graves and all that rot. The course of the GAZETTE in temporizing and apologizing for the rioters is noted, as also the Journal's fearless assault upon them. The GAZETTE has excited a storm of hisses by its truckling attempt to carry water on both shoulders, while the Thunderer excites much admiration.

Although the Workingmen's party had nothing whatever to do with the recent disgraceful business, and did not approve at all of the incendiary talk, it is odd that those members of the party who joined other citizens in patrolling the streets to secure the safety of the town are in very bad odor with the party. "Traitors" we believe is what they are called.

Professor Stewart says that earthquakes are among the lost arts in San Francisco, because the steel rails carry the electric fluid across the continent. It is not unlikely that the steamboat companies may enjoin the railways from this thoughtless discrimination against the churches and orphan asylums of the West. No hell, no earthquakes, no nothing. Whither do we drift?

A Democratic exchange notes that one objection which has been urged against Mr. Hagerman's candidacy is his sympathy with the Workingmen's movement. The D. E. thinks this no objection.

A dispatch says the demand for standard silver dollars is steadily increasing at Washington. The demand for lucre is still brisk out this way.

LETTER FROM CARSON.

The Weather Affects our Correspondent—Spiritualists at the Hub—Political Pie.

CARSON, August 9th.

Phew, what weather! The heated wave lingers long and lovingly over Eagle valley, and inanimate nature begins to raise rebellious voice to heaven. Everywhere the withering effect of the heat is apparent. Nothing escapes its blistering power. Even an immortal thought, soaring from imprisonment is emasculated by its deadly blight. Nevertheless, one must do something to lift the mind out of the stupor induced by these miserable dog-days. And so communing with myself, I resolved to write a letter to the GAZETTE. That I have nothing especially to say is of no significance in my present state of mind and body, and so my pencil moves lazily over the paper. Perhaps, I think I hear you say, aimlessly is more apposite. I will not quarrel with you, John, for to quarrel one must put forth exertion, and of exertion your subscriber is utterly incapable. Well, at the beginning, as little boys are wont to say when clamoring for mental stimulants of a marvelous and awe-inspiring nature. You must know that Carson is a beautiful town, the capital of the State, and the proud possessor of a prison, a race track, an Ormsby House, a Pantlind, a Carson Tribune, a generous and hospitable people—what am I saying? Is it not true that all these have long ago passed into history, sponsored by the erudite and venerable editor of Carson's loudest paper? What profit then, for me to enter upon the field of labor of my editor friend? I refuse, kindly but firmly refuse, to disturb penates. We will draw the veil of privacy about sacred things. Let us talk further, good friend; mayhap a kernel of ripe, full wheat may yet be sifted from this chaff. Can I not loose an idea that may leave grateful impression with you, before it is borne aloft to other spheres? Alas, I fear not. The conditions, as our friends say, are not favorable. Speaking of spiritualists to a gentleman of prominence in social and business circles here, I was somewhat surprised to learn that many of our very best people were believers in the strange but beautiful and not unphilosophical creed. It ought to make good men and women. Once dispel the gnawing doubts which since time began have harassed the finite mind, by proof to the reason, of the immortality of the soul, and you elevate the man to higher and purer realms of thought.

TO BEGIN

THE POLITICAL HORIZON seems sadly overcast with clouds of dissension and distrust. The outlook in the State is not very promising for the Republican party. I very much fear that unless a broader and nobler patriotism moves the politicians who are guiding its organization, we will have another illustration of the inefficiency of our leaders. Senator Jones has returned, and announces his aspiration to lead the party to victory, and the Senate, yet he has no policy to put forth, no advice to give us. A disgraceful quarrel between rival candidates for gubernatorial honors, with the assistance of Mr. Wren, is fast being fanned into a feud, which time itself cannot heal. Various candidates for other offices are taking part in a wretched scramble for position, and in every quarter nothing is found but jobs or counter jobs, until we faint would cry, in the bitterness of the soul: "Verily you have turned the temple into a den of thieves."

LOCAL POLITICS

attract but little attention, although the contention between the rival aspirants for the District Judgeship is, through the efforts of General Clarke and his friends, becoming very bitter and hot. I was informed the other day by a gentleman who resides at Glenbrook that the Wright and Clarke factions had sent Ben. Small to Glenbrook, to make a canvass for Wright by traducing his opponent. This man Small is said to be one of the whittled ends of Gen. Clarke, and to be a good instrument through which to blow poisonous lies over the community.

Were I a voter in your State, and consequently permitted to express an opinion in regard to this dirty business, I should suggest that the people would prefer to hear the friends of a candidate for so high an office, discuss the merits and qualifications of their candidate. I should want them to tell me how Wright stood as a lawyer with bench and bar. Whether it is true, as charged against him by lawyers, that his knowledge of the profession was gained since he sat upon the bench, and that it is not sufficient to prevent a reversal of more than two-thirds of his cases. These things, and more, are pertinent matters of inquiry.

Well, in truth, good John, I have rambled cherily along, hardly knowing what my dreamy brain would produce, and soft, dear friend, I did but little care. To-morrow I climb the dusty hill to the lake, where, upon my vantage point of observation, my busy pencil shall record the news.

SIMMOND'S NABOB WHISKY.

A GREAT REMEDY.

SIMMOND'S NABOB WHISKY.

—FOR—

Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Nervousness.

The Purest and Best

—FOR ALL—

Medicinal and Family Purposes.

HAS BEEN SOLD IN ALL THE EASTERN STATES AND GIVEN UNIVERSAL satisfaction. It is highly recommended by the Faculty for all cases of Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc.

It is now introduced to the public of the Pacific Slope, endorsed by certificates of the eminent DR. J. HAYES, State Assayer of Massachusetts, and DR. H. C. LOUDERBACK of St. Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their profession, and which is a guaranty to all buyers of its purity and quality.

I can show thousands of letters from private persons, from all parts of the Union and Canada, to testify to its merits and the benefit it has afforded, as a family remedy and tonic. Dyspepsia is called the national disease of this country, and many reasons why have been given. It is frequently said that people work too much, eat too fast, sleep too little, tax the powers of nerve and brain too incessantly, drink too much ice water, eat too much hot bread, smoke too much tobacco, give way to too much excitement, and consequently play themselves out in the shortest possible time. "A short life and a merry one" seems to be the sentiment that chiefly influences a large number of persons, but for all that no person feels at ease when suffering in health. Now, however, much or little truth should be attached to the opinion of physicians who charge the great prevalence of dyspepsia and nervousness to any of the causes mentioned, it cannot be denied that there are some applications received by druggists throughout the country for medicines to relieve and cure stomach and nervous pains and disorders, and all other maladies that afflict frail humanity. As might be expected under the circumstances, a large number of specific to successfully counteract these diseases have been introduced to the attention of the public, but nearly all of them have failed to do any good. Whenever, therefore, any alleged new remedial agent is spoken of, very little confidence is felt in it by reason of numerous past disappointments, so that people who are chronic sufferers from dyspepsia, indigestion, physical weakness, or nervousness almost despair of being cured. They, however, take too despondent a view of the matter, for those who have used the celebrated NABOB WHISKY, which can be had from all respectable druggists and grocers, know by experience that it is a sure remedy for all the maladies referred to, and that its tonic properties are of the most strengthening character. Many persons who found it impossible to properly digest a single meal, and whose physique had been sadly attenuated, have derived immediate benefit from the NABOB WHISKY, and in a short time, by its regular use, regained all their health and strength. It can be taken with impunity, as no drugs are incorporated with it, and its healthy action on the human system is at once felt. The effect which it produces on the organs of the stomach is such as to create a vigorous appetite and render digestion easy, no matter what the habits of the sufferer may be, and it at the same time steadies the nerves and stimulates the brain. There are no fictitious claims for the great remedial agent, so that all persons who are troubled with dyspepsia or nervousness would be false to themselves if they failed to test its curative qualities. Its sale is rapidly on the increase, and the better it is known the more it is used.

BORN.

PAYNE—In Reno, August 10th, 1878, to the wife of F. M. Payne—a son.

A Heart-Broken Female.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock a string of hideous screeches rang out upon the hot air of Commercial row, and a general rush was made for the east end of Earl's warehouse, whence the agonized screams proceeded. It was a Plute squaw. A poker game had been in progress. The aboriginal female was down on her luck. A buck had won her head necklace and her birth-day moccasins; a squaw had got away with her yellow handkerchief, another had won all the clothes that the law would allow her to ante. In desperation the squaw put up her dog, a dirty little poodle. Another squaw raked in the pot. Then the great agony of a stricken soul found voice and the quiet of the town was broken by howls that would have served as a sensational accompaniment to a double murder. A buck promptly choked the lady into silence, while a sympathetic sister cut a hole in the bottom of a gunny sack and gave it to her to put on.

Fair Stock Booming.

The citizens interested in fair matters met at the opera house last night. The committee on subscriptions for the pavilion reported that $3473 had been subscribed. The committee on special premiums reported having received premiums to the value of $215. J. Frazier and James C. Woodward each stood up and gave $25 apiece to the pavilion fund. A committee, composed of T. K. Hymers, J. S. Shoemaker, L. L. Crockett and C. C. Stevenson was appointed to act with the President of the society to select a site for the pavilion. The meeting adjourned to Friday evening next.

A Perilous Position.

There is a rumor afloat that the candidates of Reno are organizing to capture and imprison on trumped-up charges the half-dozen citizens who have not yet announced themselves. It only costs $5, and the man who would run the risk of losing his liberty rather than pay that paltry amount to the GAZETTE ought to be sent to jail.

A Poetical Gem.

The Sweet Singer of Michigan may look to her socks. Reno has a singer herself. A poem, written in a feminine hand arrived at this office this morning. The opening stanza will do for a starter, and if the weather grows better a few more links will be cut off and hung out to dry where the public may see them:

Oh, for a lodge in some cool wilderness;
A hole in some secluded bog,
Where, far from men and melting sunshine,
I might wallow like a hog.

Enterprising Scissors.

The Enterprise is perfectly welcome to anything it may find in the GAZETTE which it wishes to reproduce, but it would be just as well to credit matter borrowed from these columns to the GAZETTE, and not to other papers. This sort of thing the Enterprise does nearly every day. If it is distasteful to give proper credit, don't give any credit at all, but steal the items outright.

THE AUBURN MILL.

Some Good Work that it is doing for Outlying Mines.

Ores from all parts of the State are arriving at the Auburn mill for reduction. The mill, under the management of Jones & Kinkadee, has earned a first-class reputation in all respects. As has already been stated, on Monday last a car-load of ore from the noted Sheba mine of Humboldt county came down, and is now being treated. On Saturday last a car-load from the Silver Monarch mines, also of Humboldt, arrived; accompanying the same was Mr. S. E. Holcombe, general manager for the company. Mr. Holcombe was desirous of testing the different grades of ore lying on the dumps, which were not considered profitable to ship to San Francisco to be sold on assay values, and also to prove to the company the desirability of building a mill on the Humboldt river, which runs about six miles east of the mines. The ores when sampled from the batteries and chlorides ran up to ninety-four per cent. The car-load of the considered unprofitable and, indeed a dead loss if shipped to San Francisco, yielded fine bullion worth $1 19 per ounce. The pulp assays gave the following results: Silver State, $146 65; Chrystal, $195 85; Silver Monarch, average of mixed ore, $146; screenings, $94 07. This has so revolutionized matters that the Manager will return to the mines and continue regular shipments until the company determine to build a mill of their own. The Surprise and Franklin companies of Central district have a large quantity of ore upon their dumps which will be shipped to the Auburn mill. A number of other shipments are on the way from parties who wish to demonstrate facts in milling their ores preparatory to erecting their own mills. By so doing, thousands of dollars will be saved to the mines, as it is well known that assays will not satisfactorily prove the value of the mine. Mill workings are the best guarantee that investors have for their capital.

JOTTINGS.

—Quite a large delegation of young men and maidens, and bald-headed persons, left Reno this morning for the Caledonian picnic at Dall's grove.

—Vest buttons are a mere useless survival of a once necessary article. With fat men the vest itself has become obsolete.

—The mountains are full of Reno camping parties, and the rancher sleeps with a cocked shotgun by his side and keeps up telegraphic communication with the hen-house.

—The hot weather has its compensation after all. The ladies all go in for white, and a woman who doesn't look pretty in pure, fresh white muslins wouldn't look pretty under any circumstances.

—Where is Judge Wright's explanation of the Ricard fees which was called for by the morning Whitewasher recently in such a loud voice? Has he none to make? If so, where is the gallant General Clarke?

—There is a horrid belief gaining ground among the ladies of Reno that all this talk about a riot originated with the married men, who show a feverish eagerness to stay out every night under pretence of being obliged to patrol the town.

—Becker's cat is dead—the dissipated cat that acquired the jim-jams by drinking the drippings from the beer kegs. It reformed once or twice for a short space, but always returned to its base. Last night exhausted nature gave out, and the beery beast took its last drink and died.

—Some of the married ladies of Reno wonder how an ordinary policeman can endure life. Their husbands, although they have been patrolling the streets but a few nights, have already acquired red eyes and shaky hands, and can't eat any breakfast until they have to "run up town to see the Captain of the Guard for a minute."

Reno's Funniest Citizen.

Dave Lachman, that inveterate joker and one of Reno's most brilliant wits, accosted a GAZETTE reporter last evening on Commercial Row in a state of apparent excitement. "Did you see Shon?" inquired the joker. "What John?" asked the stupid journalist. "Vy, demishon mit a long neck! Haw, haw, haw!" The reporter never felt so foolish before in all his life.

The Troublesome Tramp.

The citizens' patrol begged only two tramps last night. One was found sleeping in a box car and the other wandering suspiciously about on the other side of the river. Judge Richardson this morning, on motion of the District Attorney, discharged King, one of the men arrested on a warrant. The other cases will be attended to on Monday.

The Taylor Family.

Don't forget that the Taylor family give one of their admirable entertainments at the Academy of Music to-morrow evening. Miss Mattie, the wonderful child actress, is a marvel of brightness, according to the newspapers of the coast.

ECONOMY IS WEALTH.

Remarkable Success of a Saving Young Man of Reno.

The only sure road to wealth for the young man who has only himself to rely upon, is economy. If only a dollar a day is earned, ten or twenty cents should be saved. A young man who will pursue this course can not be kept down. We know two young men in Reno who are admirable examples of the prudent and the imprudent. The prudent young man learned a trade, and for the past five years has been living on the Reese plan, eating just enough to support life, and going shabby as to dress—almost in rags. He was never known to spend a cent for anything that was not absolutely necessary. The imprudent youth has always gone in for gorgeous raiment, lived on the best his earnings could buy, taken the girls to the theatre, enjoyed a camping trip every summer, and in no way has taken thought of the morrow. Now, mark the difference. The prudent young man showed the imprudent young man last Saturday night $1,000 in gold notes which he had saved by pinching and starving himself. The imprudent young man at once asked the prudent youth to take a drink, and as the prudent young man was never known to refuse anything that he could get for nothing, he accepted several, and then a number more. As the Sabbath sun rose upon Reno the prudent young man had acquired two things—a bursting head and a knowledge of the game of poker. The imprudent young man had acquired $1,000. He bought Sierra Nevada and Union on a margin and is now wealthy, while the prudent young man keeps up the drunk.

Dying.

We are informed this afternoon that the esteemed wife of Assistant Postmaster Blakeley is pronounced by her physicians in a dying condition. Mrs. Blakeley has been long a sufferer, yet this fact does not the less impress us and her many friends in this community with the sad fact of her early and untimely death. It is very sad.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical Institute.

209, KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

Established in 1854.

For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Nervous System.

THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF human life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established, first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1850, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1854, as a private dispensary, in order to afford the afflicted the best, medical and surgical treatment for the above and all other affections and complaints. Consultation at the Institute, or by letter, FREE

To the Afflicted:

Dr. L. J. Czapka would most respectfully inform the public of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those who are afflicted with disease, he has reopened his MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE and resumed the practice of his profession. The Doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting diligently the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach and kidneys, liver complaints, etc., successfully treated. Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communication strictly confidential. Medical cures sent by express. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D. 9-3-14-1f 209 Kearney St., San Francisco
